Buyer shall always thoroughly review any invoice before payment thereof. In case of any change in bank account information or any suspicion of hacking or fraud, Buyer shall immediately contact, by telephone, the corresponding sales manager of Pop Viend Seeds to verify the correct payment details. Buyer has no right to suspend payment or make deductions or set-offs. In case of any hacking or fraud, such payment will not release Buyer from payment to Pop Viend Seeds.
- If on the first day upon the due date of the invoice no full payment has been received by Pop Viend Seeds, Buyer shall be in default, without any notice being required.
- If payment in instalments has been agreed then, if any instalment is not duly paid, Buyer shall, without any notice being required, be in default and the remaining instalments shall immediately be due and payable.

Upon each calendar year end, the amount over which the contractual interest is calculated shall be increased by the contractual interest due over that calendar year.

- All payments made by Buyer shall serve, regardless of any notices sent by the latter, firstly to reduce the extra-judicial collection costs due at that moment, then to reduce the contractual interest due at that moment, and then to reduce the oldest invoice amount due at that moment. Once Buyer is liquidated or has been granted a moratorium or a decision has been made that it will be liquidated, all receivables of Pop Viend Seeds shall be immediately due and payable.

- Once Buyer is in default, declared bankrupt, in liquidation or has been granted a moratorium, a decision to liquidate has been made, placed under guardianship, and/ or the like, Pop Viend Seeds shall have the right to suspend performance of all its obligations towards Buyer and to cancel the agreement at its discretion through an extra-judicial declaration, without this resulting in Pop Viend Seeds owing any damages, whereby all obligations of Buyer towards Pop Viend Seeds shall be immediately due and payable.
- If Pop Viend Seeds has a claim against a company related to Buyer – e.g. a parent, subsidiary, or sister company – and that company is in a state of bankruptcy or liquidation or has been granted suspension of payment, Pop Viend Seeds may set off that claim against any claim that Buyer may have against Pop Viend Seeds, even if Pop Viend Seeds' claim may not have become payable at that time.

- If any complaint is acknowledged by Pop Viend Seeds then it shall be competent at its discretion to either replace the relevant goods and compensate for the cost of freight, or credit Buyer for the relevant portion of the delivery. The foregoing shall be Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy and a different opinion between the Parties as to whether the delivered Product is defective in terms of germination, genuineness and/or purity of variety, technical pureness and health then the Parties shall in mutual consultation, and failing consensus at own initiative, appoint an expert to conduct an investigation. Article 12 – Product Information

- Illustrations, catalogues, drawings and notices made available by or on behalf of Pop Viend Seeds regarding quality, composition, weight, dimensions, treatment in the broadest sense, cultivation-related information, and applications and properties of the Products shall be merely illustrative without the Products being required to be a match.
- Cultivation-related recommendations preceding and during the cultivation of crops shall be made by or on behalf of Pop Viend Seeds without obligation and in a general sense, without any guarantee, representation or warranty regarding purpose of performance, and shall not affect the personal responsibility of Buyer to (cause to) evaluate such recommendations as to specific fitness for Buyer and other factors (potentially) affecting the cultivation of the crop.
- As used in the information supplied by Pop Viend Seeds, the following terminology shall mean:
 - Susceptibility means 'the inability of a plant variety to restrict the growth and development of a specified pest'.
 - Resistance means 'the ability of a plant variety to restrict the growth and development of a specified pest and/or the damage they cause when compared to susceptible plant varieties under similar environmental conditions and pest pressure. Resistant varieties may exhibit some disease symptoms or damage under heavy pest pressure'.
 - Two levels of resistance are defined:
 - High resistance (HR): plant varieties that highly restrict the growth and development of the specified pest under normal pest pressure when compared to susceptible varieties. These plant varieties may, however, exhibit some symptoms or damage under heavy pest pressure.
 - Intermediate resistance (IR): plant varieties that restrict the growth and development of the specified pest but may exhibit a greater range of symptoms or damage compared to high resistant varieties. Intermediately resistant plant varieties will still show less severe symptoms or damage than susceptible plant varieties when grown under similar environmental conditions and/or pest pressure.
- If a resistance is claimed for a plant variety it is limited to the specified biotype, pathotypes, races or strains of the pest. If no biotypes, pathotypes, races or strains are specified in the resistance claim for the variety, it is because no generally accepted classification of the cited pest by biotype, pathotype, race or strain exists. New biotypes, pathotypes, races or strains that may emerge are not covered by the original resistance claim.
- Immediately means 'when a plant is not subject to attack or infection by a specified pest'. Also regarding this terminology Pop Viend Seeds communicates without any guarantee, representation or warranty regarding purpose of performance and shall not be held liable for any information provided in relation hereto.
- Any and all warranties shall lapse and Pop Viend Seeds shall not be liable for any Product that has been repaired, treated, conditioned and/or manipulated in any way by Buyer or by Pop Viend Seeds or a third party at Buyer's request.
- Except for any limited warranties expressly stated herein, Pop Viend Seeds hereby expressly disclaims any and all other warranties, whether express, implied, or statutory, including, without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title, and non-infringement, and any and all warranties that may arise from course of dealing, course of performance, or usage of trade.

Article 13 – Indemnification and Liability

- Buyer shall indemnify Pop Viend Seeds against any and all claims of third parties for compensation of damage (all defects in the Products delivered either by Buyer directly or through Buyer as intermediary), or for infringements of (intellectual) property rights. Buyer shall for this purpose, on Pop Viend Seeds' demand, take legal action or institute arbitration proceedings. Buyer shall be liable for all legal representation costs being incurred by Pop Viend Seeds.
- The terms and provisions of this agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each party hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and the Parties do not intend to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other person. Buyer will indemnify and hold harmless Pop Viend Seeds to the extent that third parties assert that they derive their claim or allege a receivable on Pop Viend Seeds resulting from the agreement entered into between the Parties.
- To the extent permitted by applicable law, in no event shall Pop Viend Seeds be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any kind, or any loss of profits, or loss or interruption of business, in connection with the Products or this agreement, or the Parties' activities relating hereto, even if Pop Viend Seeds has been advised of the possibility of such damages. This exclusion of liability for loss can also be invoked by the (former) personnel, directors and supervisory directors of Pop Viend Seeds, by third parties engaged by it/ them, including heirs and legal successors.
- If, the preceding sub-clause notwithstanding, a liability for loss is established at law then Pop Viend Seeds' liability shall be limited to the payout made in the concrete case by its insurance company under its (business) liability insurance policy.
- If the preceding sub-clause notwithstanding, a liability for loss is established at law, and in the concrete case no payout results under a (business) liability insurance policy then Pop Viend Seeds' liability shall be limited to the invoice amount, less any granted discounts and reductions and transport costs and VAT involved in the pertinent portion of the delivery.
- Buyer hereby explicitly understands and agrees to this limitation of liability of Pop Viend Seeds.

Article 14 – Force Majeure

- If Pop Viend Seeds is faced with a circumstance due to which it cannot perform and which cannot be attributed to Pop Viend Seeds if and insofar as this circumstance makes performance impossible or unreasonably complicated (force majeure) then it shall be competent to suspend performance of all obligations towards Buyer and at its discretion dissolve the agreement through an extra-judicial declaration, without consequently coming to owe any damages to Buyer.
- In addition to paragraph 1 and as variance with article 6:75 BW (BW = Burgerlijk Wetboek = Dutch Civil Code), the definition of a force majeure situation shall be: any circumstance not attributable to and reasonably not to be foreseen by Pop Viend Seeds as well as any foreseeable circumstance not dependent on the will of Pop Viend Seeds that temporarily or permanently prevents performance of the agreement. Force majeure situations shall in any event include: war, threat of war, civil war, riot, severe storm, hurricane, flood, water damage, other severe weather conditions, epidemics, fire, transport difficulties, unforeseen technical complications, business interruptions, work strikes at Pop Viend Seeds or at third parties whose services it has engaged, blockades, import and export bans whether or not ordered by phytosanitary authorities, full or partial seizure or confiscation of stock at Pop Viend Seeds or at its suppliers by civil or military authorities, lack of transport capacity, non or untimely delivery by suppliers of Pop Viend Seeds, machine malfunctions, destructions and other standstills in the enterprises of Pop Viend Seeds or suppliers, as well as a shortage, whether or not resulting from price increases of the products or from government measures, which completely or temporarily impede or hinder delivery.

After this period, all pertinent rights and defences of Buyer shall lapse. All rights of action and other rights or competences on any account towards Pop Viend Seeds and/or third parties in connection with any (non) performance or any acts of commission or omission on the part of Pop Viend Seeds shall become prescribed upon expiration of a period of 12 (twelve) months after the moment when Buyer could reasonably be aware of the existence of these rights of action or other rights or competences.
- Any and all disputes arising from these General Terms and Conditions is agreement, or from further agreements resulting from it, shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute (NAI) in Rotterdam. The Arbitral Tribunal shall comprise of one arbitrator. The venue of arbitration shall be in Amsterdam. The proceedings shall be conducted in the Dutch language, unless Parties agree to conducting the proceedings in another language. Joining the arbitral proceedings with other arbitral proceedings as provided in art. 1046 of the Dutch Code of Civil Procedure ("Wetboek van Burgerlijke Rechtsvordering") is excluded.
- Pop Viend Seeds shall be entitled, if it chooses to disregard the arbitration agreement concluded between Parties, to submit disputes to the competent court in Alkmaar or another court outside the Netherlands that would have been competent without arbitration agreement and/or choice of law.
